

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

Whistle Blower Policy for the employees of the company to have a secure mechanism to report any concerns that they may have of actual, suspected or planned wrongdoings (hereinafter “wrongdoings”) involving Karaikal Port Private Limited or any of its directors, officers or employees.

The employees of the company have a right to report any such concerns through this policy, knowing fully well that such an act of whistle blowing on his / her part would not lead to any discrimination or recrimination against him / her.

The concerns shall be addressed to Mr. Sabyasachi Hajara, Independent Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee. Correspondence on this may be addressed to him at the address of the Corporate Office or by email to shajara73@gmail.com.

PROTECTION OF WHISTLEBLOWER

Any employee of the Company making a report in good faith, can do so in the knowledge and confidence that the Board of Directors of Karaikal Port Private Limited will ensure that the act will not lead to the employee facing any recrimination, punishment or victimization.

Reports made in good faith must be based on a reasonable belief that a Wrongdoing has occurred or is likely to occur. If a subsequent investigation reveals that there was no Wrongdoing the employee making the report would not be subjected to any victimization or disciplinary action if he/she had acted in good faith.

SCOPE OF POLICY

The policy applies to Karaikal Port Private Limited including joint ventures and other investments in which any Karaikal Port Private Limited has a participating interest. The policy applies regardless of the jurisdiction in which the Wrongdoing occurs or is suspected to have occurred, or whether or not such Wrongdoing or suspected Wrongdoing occurs in the home country or jurisdiction of another Country.

PROCEDURES

Where an Employee of the Company suspects there is a Wrongdoing or has been asked to participate in a Wrongdoing, the employee has a paramount duty to report the concern immediately

In the circumstances where any Karaikal Port Private Limited Employee is directed to carry out or account for a transaction or series of transactions, that, in such Karaikal Port Private Limited Employee's opinion, are outside normal policies and procedures, he should bring his concerns to the attention of Mr. Sabyasachi Hajara, Chairman of the Audit Committee.

Reports should be made to the individuals referred to in paragraph above

If an employee, who has a concern that the Code of Conduct is not being properly complied with, should report it, in the first instances, to his immediate superior. In case the concern involves the superior or the employee believes that his/her report has not been acted upon, he / she should report the matter to Mr. Sabyasachi Hajara.

Wherever possible a Karaikal Port Private Limited Employee should make a report disclosing his/her identity. However, if he/she makes a disclosure anonymously then consideration will only be given to such disclosures if:-

- The subject matter is serious enough to justify it;
- Sufficient information is provided to take further action;
- Anonymity does not harm the credibility of the disclosure; and anonymity does not prevent the confirmation of details with other sources

All reports under this Policy will be promptly and thoroughly investigated, and all information disclosed during the course of the investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary to conduct the investigation and take any remedial action, in accordance with applicable law.

All reports will be investigated by persons with the appropriate authority and who are not directly linked with any aspect of the Wrongdoing as may be instructed to, by Mr. Sabyasachi Hajara.

Wherever necessary, or required by law, a report may be referred to an external body for further investigation. Where feasible any such referral will be subject to the agreement of Mr. Sabyasachi Hajara.

All employees of Karaikal Port Private Limited have a duty to cooperate in the investigation of reports of Questionable Accounting / Audit Matters or the reporting of fraudulent financial information or of Grave Misconduct or of discrimination, retaliation or harassment resulting from the reporting or investigation of such matters

An employee shall be subject to disciplinary action, including the termination of their employment, if the employee fails to cooperate in an investigation, or deliberately provides false information during an investigation. If, at the conclusion of its investigation, the Company determines that a violation of policy has occurred, the Company will take effective remedial action commensurate with the severity of the offense. This action may include disciplinary action against the accused party, up to and including termination. Reasonable and necessary steps will also be taken to prevent any further violations of policy

All documents related to the reporting, investigation and enforcement of this policy, as a result of a report of questionable accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, or the reporting of fraudulent financial information or matter pertaining to Misconduct, or of the discrimination, retaliation or harassment of an employee who made such a report, shall be kept in accordance with the retention policy under applicable law

The results of an investigation shall be communicated to the Karaikal Port Private Limited Employee if considered appropriate by Mr. Sabyasachi Hajara, provided the employee concerned has agreed to maintain confidentiality

AMENDMENTS

The Board of Directors of the Company may modify this Policy. Modification may be necessary, among other reasons, to maintain compliance with local, state and central regulations and / or to accommodate organizational changes within the Company.
